WHOSE COUNTRY?

USA, Egypt | 57 min

Police brutality was a widely reported cause of Egypt's 2011 revolution, but where do things stand five years on? Get a rare, first-hand account of the endemic corruption and abuse that could still undermine Egypt's path forward if left unchecked.

Screening with

INTERNATIONAL PREMIERE

THE VALLEY OF SALT

D: Christophe M. Saber | Switzerland | 52 min

Visiting Cairo for the first time since the revolution, a young filmmaker witnesses death threats against his family for their work with local Christians. Shaken, they begin to question their sense of belonging in their country.

FILMS THAT DESERVE ANOTHER OUTING ON THE BIG SCREEN

INCIDENT AT RESTIGOUCHE

D: Alanis Obomsawin | Canada | 1984 | 46 min

Justice and sovereignty are cross-examined after a small Mi'kmaq community is targeted in an outrageous governmental attack. Those responsible for the orders are challenged in some of the most powerful interviews ever filmed.

Screening with

BASTION POINT DAY 507

D: Merata Mita, Leon Narbey, Gerd Pohlmann | New Zealand | 1980 | 26 min

SUN, MAY 8 2:15 PM SCOTIA

INQUIRING NUNS

D: Gordon Quinn, Gerald Temaner | USA | 1968 | 66 min

At the height of the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War, cameras followed two nuns around Chicago as they asked individuals: "Are you happy?" The resulting film is a poignant x-ray of a culture at a crossroads.

Screening with

THE CHICAGO MATERNITY CENTER STORY

D: Jerry Blumenthal, Suzanne Davenport, Sharon Karp, Gordon Quinn, Jenny Rohrer | USA | 1976 | 60 min

For over 75 years, one maternity care centre in Chicago's inner city provided safe home deliveries for local mothers; follow its journey in the mid-1970s as it fights for survival while welcoming new life.

WED, MAY 4 5:30 PM INNIS

MADONNA: TRUTH OR DARE

D: Alek Keshishian | USA | 1991 | 122 min

Widely regarded as one of the best music documentaries ever made, Madonna defies boundaries and dares us to look away in this candid, compelling and unexpectedly revealing journey around the world, behind the scenes of her Blond Ambition tour.

FRI, APR 29 2:45 PM HART

MEDIUM COOL

D: Haskell Wexler | USA | 1969 | 144 min

Inventively embedding a fictional narrative inside the very real anti-war protests at the 1968 Democratic National Convention, this vivid and kinetic film captures a moment of explosive cultural transformation while offering a stinging indictment of violence in the media.

FRI, APR 29 12:30 PM TBLB

SHERMAN'S MARCH

D: Ross McElwee | USA | 1986 | 155 min

In this wryly hilarious road movie, director Ross McElwee sets out to make a travelogue about a famous Civil War campaign, but his historical jaunt morphs into a revealing and deeply personal search for love.

SUN, MAY 1 12:30 PM TBLB

SMOKES AND LOLLIES

D: Gillian Armstrong | Australia | 1976 | 25 min

In the first of what would become an ongoing story—similar to the Up series in the UK—director Gillian Armstrong meets three 14-year-old girls from Adelaide in a hurry to grow up, get jobs and break free.

Screening with

14'S GOOD, 18'S BETTER

D: Gillian Armstrong | Australia | 1981 | 47 min

In the second installment of this destined-to-be-classic document of women coming of age in 1970s Australia, Armstrong reunites with her three subjects at age 18 to reveal the trials and tribulations of becoming adults.

LIFE ITSELF

AT THE DEATH HOUSE DOOR

D: Steve James, Peter Gilbert | USA | 2008 | 94 min

Witness the existential crisis of a reserved and devoted chaplain who has ministered to 95 death row inmates in their final hours, as he begins to question the morality of—and lose faith in—the criminal justice system.

SUN, MAY 8 6:45 PM SCOTIA

HOOP DREAMS

D: Steve James | USA | 1994 | 176 min

This seminal and award-winning game changer tells the story of two Chicago inner-city basketball prodigies struggling with institutions that hold up unreasonable expectations and ignore the colossal burden carried on their young shoulders.

SAT, MAY 7 2:00 PM TBLB

THE INTERRUPTERS

D: Steve James | USA | 2011 | 125 min

Three unforgettable members of a grassroots peacekeeping team roam Chicago's toughest neighbourhoods and do the impossible work of "interrupting" violence, using their troubled personal histories as a tool to forge understanding in ways an outsider never could.

FRI, APR 29 11:30 AM HART

LIFE ITSELF

D: Steve James | USA | 2014 | 118 min

The indomitable Roger Ebert was many things: a popularizer of film criticism, a screenplay writer, a rabble-rouser, a philosopher. See the man like never before, through the lens of a filmmaker whose career he helped boost.

THU, MAY 5 3:00 PM TBLB

NO CROSSOVER: THE TRIAL OF ALLEN IVERSON

D: Steve James | USA | 2010 | 82 min

In his hometown of Hampton, Virginia, Steve James revisits the racially charged trial and conviction of high school basketball star Allen Iverson, which brought bubbling rancor to the surface and still haunts its residents.

WED, MAY 4 1:45 PM SCOTIA

STEVIE

D: Steve James | USA | 2002 | 144 min

Reconnecting with a troubled young man to whom he had once been a Big Brother, Steve James chronicles his own struggle to make positive change while revealing one family's tragic cycle of abuse with a compassionate and non-judgmental eye.
